File a police report as after you've been scammed, especially if money was stolen from your account. Your bank or credit card company will want a copy of the police report, as will the major credit agencies. Don't call 9-1-1 for this type of issue, though, unless the scammer threatens your life and you're in physical danger.

I Got Scammed/Hacked. This is a very similar version of the poor and borrow scams, but can be used by people with Robux or Premium and is much harder to expose. The scammer dresses up to look poor and asks for pets. The scammer tells them that they got scammed or hacked and lost all their pets instead of saying they're poor.
