Come le vetrate delle cattedrali e i chiostrì delle abbazie, le miniature dei manoscritti testimoniano le meraviglie del Medioevo cristiano. Ecco 72 miniature inedite da colorare, ispirate alle piú belle realizzazioni dei copisti e dei miniaturisti che, nell'arco di mille anni, hanno copiato la Bibbia e meditato con i libri santi. Le pagine iniziali tracciano la storia della miniatura, presentano i differenti stili e guidano il lettore a un metodo di lavoro e nella scelta dei colori. Un itinerario di Lectio divina propone di entrare nella meditazione della Sacra Scrittura fino alla contemplazione del mistero divino. • 72 miniature da colorare • Breve storia della miniatura • Guida al metodo • Itinerario di Lectio divina

By popular request the artist behind the Pattern and Design Coloring Book Series now brings you 50 new mandala designs: Volume One of her new series devoted wholly to mandalas! These beautiful and intricate mandalas are artist Jenean Morrison's interpretation of an art form that can be traced back centuries. Mandalas are used by many as calming, meditative tools. As with her Pattern and Design Coloring Book series, all 50 designs are printed on the FRONTS OF PAGES ONLY. Jenean is certain that you'll find these mandalas as relaxing and fun to color as they were for her to design. Challenging yet soothing at the same time, you'll experience many hours of enjoyment with Volume One of the Mandala Designs Coloring Book!

A beautiful retelling of the first Easter taken from 99 Stories from the Bible (nominated for Best Children's Book of the Year 2014 at CRT). Ideal for sharing with young readers, at home, school, or Sunday school as you remember the events of the Jesus' death and resurrection each year.

A flap book to introduce little children to the story of baby Jesus. Warm and friendly illustrations by Rosalinde Bonnet make this classic story accessible to the very young.

Chiara Petrillo was seated in a wheel chair looking lovingly toward Jesus in the tabernacle. Her husband, Enrico, found the courage to ask her a question that he had been holding back. Thinking of Jesus's phrase, "my yoke is sweet and my burden is light," he asked: "Is this yoke, this cross, really sweet, as Jesus said?" A smile came across Chiara's face. She turned to her husband and said in a weak voice: "Yes, Enrico, it is very sweet." At 28 years old, Chiara passed away, her body ravaged by cancer. The emotional, physical, and spiritual trials of this young Italian mother are not uncommon. It was her joyful and loving response to each that led one cardinal to call her "a saint for our times." Chiara entrusted her first baby to the blessed Virgin, but felt as though this child was not hers to keep. Soon, it was revealed her daughter had life-threatening abnormalities. Despite universal pressure to abort, Chiara gave birth to a beautiful girl who died within the hour. A year later, the death of her second child came even more quickly. Yet God was preparing their hearts for more—more sorrow and more grace. While pregnant a third time, Chiara developed a malignant tumor. She refused to jeopardize the life of her unborn son by undergoing treatments during the pregnancy. Chiara waited until after Francesco was safely born, and then began the most intense treatments of radiation and chemotherapy, but it was soon clear that the cancer was terminal. Almost immediately after giving birth to Francesco, Chiara's tumor became terminal and caused her to lose the use of her right eye. Her body was tested, and so was her soul as she suffered through terrible dark nights. She said "yes" to everything God sent her way, becoming a true child of God. And as her days on earth came to an end, Enrico looked down on his wife and said, "If she is going to be with Someone who loves her more than I, why should I be upset?" Each saint has a special charisma, a particular facet of God that is reflected through her. Chiara's was to be a witness to joy in the face of great adversity, the kind which makes love overflow despite the sorrow from loss and death.

Detailed plates from the Bible: the Creation scenes, Adam and Eve, horrifying visions of the Flood, the battle sequences with their monumental crowds, depictions of the life of Jesus, 241 plates in all.
