Elie occasionally gives his rations to his ill father and even gives up food to be next to him. Giving up rations is a HUGE deal considering the conditions they are in, and this proves Elie has hope in his father. I believe that although Elie's dad is in need of his rations, he also benefits Elie by giving him an outlet of love and hope.

Eliezer. The narrator of Night and the stand-in for the memoir's author, Elie Wiesel. Night traces Eliezer's psychological journey, as the Holocaust robs him of his faith in God and exposes him to the deepest inhumanity of which man is capable. Despite many tests of his humanity, however, Eliezer maintains his devotion to his father. It is important to note that

For this assignment, you are asked to do two things: 1. Read Nightby Elie Wiesel. 2. Track your thinking in a Dialectical Journal as you move through the work, making note of recurring motifs, or topics, in a composition notebook. The back of this page has an example of how you should set up your pages into three columns, what questions you can use to guide your thinking as you read, and how you should fill in each section of the journal.
