nursing pioneers took the form of creating the models for professional education. The year 1873 heralded the opening of Nightingale-influenced nurse-training schools and the beginning of the modern nursing movement in the United States. Early nursing leaders implemented many of Nightingale's ideas about nursing.

As a nurse, I feel very strongly about being involved in organizations and politics. We are here to improve patients' quality of life, which is not limited to their inpatient stay and is affected by their environment outside the hospital, including all the policies put forth by local and national government. We must join forces as nurses to promote a better future for our patients—and for our own families!

NURSING AND POLITICS Nursing is a political activity. Politics, in the broadest sense of the word, is part of all nurses' lives, especially in the large institutions within which many of us work. It is therefore important that we think about power and politics.

~~13. Power and politics in the practice of nursing | Nurse Key~~
Many nursing scholars, professional nursing organizations, and other health-focused organizations, expect and encourage nurses to engage in socio-political activities. Yet, studies have shown that nurse participation in political activities remains low.
