Studying the Psalms In the past I felt that the Psalms, while wonderful expressions of adorations to God, were apparently disjointed and unassociated one with the other. Most were magnificent praises that David, and others, expressed to Almighty God, while others expressed confession, repentance, regret, even, prayers of retribution upon enemies.

We will begin to follow the pattern of the psalmists as we begin to praise. In short, with the psalms that we study as our guide, we will grow deeper in our walk with the Lord and more able to offer worthy praise to the King. We will experience the Psalms. I must say that narrowing down the psalms we'll study to just a few has been difficult.
