this fits in with CloudComputing, but it's also something that can be done without a full cloud service. To be able to do such rapid provisioning, you'll need a lot of automation - it may not have to be fully automated to start with, but to do serious microservices later it will need to get that way.

You Must Be This Tall Rocky Point was the place to go when I was a kid. Created by Captain William Winslow in the 1840s on the coast of Rhode Island, Rocky Point eventually grew into a thriving amusement park and food hall. I can remember taking boat rides there as a kid just for the chowder and clam cakes.
